

C-Doc PATRONS' CIRCLE

The Castlemaine Documentary Film Festival is an annual three-day curated festival, presenting a selection of enriching and thought-provoking stories of the world. The festival offers unforgettable documentaries and post-screening filmmaker discussions which uncover the stories behind the stories.

The festival exposes our community and visitors to fascinating worlds and cultures; bringing audiences face to face with real-life characters, real-life stories and real-world problems in a regional Victorian setting.

Ticket sales cover less than half of our program presentation costs each year and individual financial support can help us continue to achieve our vision of presenting this world-class festival in Castlemaine.

Patrons' gifts enable us to connect world-class local and international filmmakers and social commentators with audiences, and to facilitate the sharing of stories and ideas.

Together we can build a better-informed and engaged society.

JOIN a very special group of people whose passion, loyalty and commitment to the truth helps us create extraordinary experiences that connect our community and inspire the critical thinkers of the future.
